You will be received with sincere cordiality. Your reservation for an inexpensive room or for a luxurious suite, (most of which overlook the most beautiful park in the greatest city in the world), will have my personal attention.

The Hurricane Deck, atop the hotel, open during the summer, is the most talked of alfresco dining and dancing place in the city. You will see many personages in society, novelists, artists, stage and "movie" stars, and other celebrities who are doing things. Here you may enjoy many evening hours of refreshing relaxation. New York and environs offers many delightful trips for the motorist. Information concerning motor trips and other matters of interest will be furnished free. Write me for Information Budget.

27 LABOR DISPUTES ADJUSTED BY BOARD

Settlement of the Wilmington, Del. settlement of the Wilmington, Del., street car strike by Department of Labor conciliators was announced at the department yesterday. The striking carmen returned to work at noon. About 460 men were involved.

Threatened suspension of operations on the Aurora, Eigin and Chicago and the Eigin and the Railway an interurban electric line connecting the three cities, as a result of a controversy between the company and its employes, was averted. Conciliator Oscar Nelson effected an adjustment of the dispute without a stoppage of work. A dispute between the employes and the Terre Haute, Ind., street railway also was settled amicably. A strike was imminent. Twenty-seven industrial controversies have been adjusted by the De-partment of Labor during the past five days. Only nine of them reached the strike stage, and the average length of the strike was not more than two days.

Leek, Licked Slacker of Slackwood, Kisses Flag

Slackwood, was badly beaten and compelled to kiss the American flag compened to kiss the American has for alleged disloyal remarks yester-day. Robert Hewitt, Anton Ligocke and Henry Legale heard him say things that they did not like and they gave him a severe trouncing, ending up by forcing him to kiss the flag.

SUGAR USERS HOLD REPORTS OF QUANTITIES

Manufacturers in D. C. Are Called Upon to Make Quick Statements.

Many manufacturers in the District of Columbia who use sugar in their of Columbia who use sugar in their products have not yet made a return to the District food adminstrator regarding the quantity of augar they use, as directed in an order issued some time ago by the Food Administrator, according to a statement made yesterday by Clarence R. Wilson, food administrator of the District.

statement made yesterday by Clarence R. Wilson, food administrator of the District.

Mr. Wilson has given the manufacturers until June 10 to get their revenues into his office, after which time all delinquents may be deprived of their sugar for the remainder of the year, and also if they have any sugar in their possession, of which no return has been made, they may be held for hoarding. He declares that a comparison of the statements filed in his office by manufacturers of apple butter, bevrage syrups, candy, catsup, cereals, chewing gum, chill sauce, chocolate, cocoa, condiments, confectionery, explosives, flavoring extracts, fruit syrups, glycerine, honey, invert sugar, jam, jelly, meat products, medicines, preserves, pickies, soda water, soft drinks, tobacco, ice cream and wine shows that many of the manufacturers have neglected, or wilfully failed to fill out the statements as facturers have neglected, or wilfully failed, to fill out the statements as requested by his regulations. He also declared that several lunchrooms, bakeries and soda fountains have not yet filed statements as to the amount of sugar consumed by mount of sugar consumed during the last year. them during the last year.

Mr. Wilson said that it is his intention to turn the entire force of his inspectors loose on June 11, to round up the delinquents, who would be brought to his office and told
